The Tacoma Athletic Commission (TAC) proudly announces Evan Brewer and Kate Pestova from Tacoma Community College as the 2020 College Athletes of the Year. The TAC formed in December 1942 and has been celebrating amateur athletics and recognizing local athletes for generations.

Evan Brewer's prodigious performances as a soccer goalie were extraordinary. Evan has a long list of recognitions, voted to the 2018 and 2019 Western Region All-Star Teams, voted the 2019 Western Region MVP and voted by all the coaches in the league as the 2019 NWAC Baden Player of the Year. Evan is loved by his teammates, respected by his opponents, and appreciated by those who know him. He is a gentleman and a competitor. Evan has passed up numerous college inquires and has chosen to serve his country joining the United States Air Force.

The TAC recognizes and congratulates Evan Brewer for his incredible accomplishments as an amateur athlete at Tacoma Community College.

Kate Pestova dazzled her teammates and coaches with her ability along with the volleyball net. Pestova, a sophomore, 5'10" Outside Hitter from Auburn Riverside High School, has left her mark on the Tacoma Community College Volleyball Program. During her two years, she led TCC to an 8th place finish in the 2018 Northwest Athletic Conference (NWAC) Championships and a 4th place finish this year in the 2019 tournament, tying TCC's best placement in program history. Kate is a member of the 2018 and 2019 All-West Region 1st Team, 2019 All-NWAC 1st Team, and was voted an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) 2nd Team All American. In 2018 Kate led the NWAC in aces per set, the nation in kills per set, and 2019 she finished in the top 5 for all junior college athletes for kills per set. Her professionalism matches Kate's energy and competitiveness on and off the court

The TAC recognizes and congratulates Kate Pestova for her incredible accomplishments as an amateur athlete at Tacoma Community College.
